

Impact of MCD made clear at Mortgage Vision 2015

UK, September 15, 2015: The reality of the Mortgage Credit Directive (MCD) and the direct impact it will have on brokers will take centre stage at this year's series of Mortgage Vision events.

Taking place throughout October and November, the free-to-attend events organised by Mortgage Brain, will feature headline speakers from the Association of Mortgage Intermediaries (AMI) and Nationwide/The Mortgage Works who will share what MCD will mean to brokers and the changes that lenders are making in light of the new rules.

Each of the eight nationwide events will also feature expert views and exclusive round table discussions from Aldermore, Bright Grey, Clydesdale Bank, ConveyancingBrain, Fluent Money, Mortgage Brain, Nationwide/The Mortgage Works, Skipton Intermediaries and Santander for Intermediaries.

Mark Lofthouse, CEO of Mortgage Brain, comments, "With just six months to go until its introduction, MCD is very much at the forefront of everyone's minds with questions still being asked about what needs to be done, who needs to do what and by when.

"This year's series of Mortgage Vision events present the perfect platform to address these issues and with headline presentations from AMI, Nationwide/The Mortgage Works and us, plus round table presentations from the likes of Santander, Aldermore Bank, Bright Grey and Fluent Money, all aspects of MCD will be covered."

Now in their sixth year, the Mortgage Vision events have gone from strength to strength and are considered to be one of the best and most informative mortgage events of the year. Around 700 mortgage brokers attended last year's events with 96% of attendees rating them as excellent or very good and 99% saying that they would recommend them to their peers.

Aston Villa's football ground in Birmingham will play host to the first event on Wednesday 7th October, with a further seven events scheduled to run until 25th November 2015 where they'll draw to an end at Oulton Hall in Leeds.

Further event information, including locations, dates and booking details for the free, half-day events can be found online at www.mortgagevision.net.
