

Lighthouse switches on to Mortgage Brain for product sourcing

UK, April 7, 2015: Lighthouse Mortgage and Protection Solutions (LMPS), part of one of the largest financial groups in the UK, has selected Mortgage Brain's award winning sourcing system, MortgageBrain Classic, as its preferred mortgage sourcing technology solution.

The system will now be used by Lighthouse Mortgage and Protection Solutions' nationwide network of mortgage advisers to conduct a quick, yet thorough whole-of-market search and selection process for their clients.

Paul Harris, Managing Director, at Lighthouse Mortgage and Protection Solutions, comments, "Mortgage Brain has a reputation for providing market leading technology solutions and we're delighted to be promoting MortgageBrain Classic to our advisers."

"The system's sourcing, integration and two-way data sharing capabilities are proving to be hugely popular with our advisers. It's fast and easy to use and we're confident that it will streamline the mortgage advice and sales process by allowing our advisers to conduct a thorough whole-of-market search and selection process quicker than ever."

From one screen, advisers using MortgageBrain Classic can conduct around 90% of the mortgage search and selection process, conduct multiple client specific searches, generate personalised best buy tables and more.
