

Legal & General adopts sourcing technology from Mortgage Brain

UK, July 23, 2014: Legal & General, one of the UK's largest financial services providers, is offering Mortgage Brain's award winning sourcing system, ALL NEW MortgageBrain, as one of its mortgage sourcing technology solutions to its AR Network.

By choosing ALL NEW MortgageBrain, Legal & General's mortgage network ARs will now be equipped with the industry's most innovative sourcing system to conduct a quick, yet thorough whole of market search and selection process for their clients.

The system's comprehensive sourcing functionality, integration and two-way data sharing capabilities were highlighted as key areas where ALL NEW MortgageBrain would assist in supporting the mortgage advice and sales process.

Simon Maskell, Marketing Director at Legal & General Network, comments, "We remain committed to providing our AR mortgage network members with the best software solutions to benefit their businesses.

"They currently use Trigold and we're pleased to be able to offer an alternative solution by giving them access to Mortgage Brain's sourcing system. This will allow them to search across a wide range of product offered by Legal & General Mortgage Club."

Over the past few months a host of networks, mortgage clubs, affinity groups and hundreds of individual brokers have selected ALL NEW MortgageBrain as their preferred technology, contributing to the systems continued growth and increasing market share.
