

Mortgage Brain announces partnership of The ESTAS Mortgage Broker Awards

UK, December 15, 2015: Mortgage Brain, the multi-award winning mortgage technology solutions provider, has been confirmed as the official ESTAS Partner for the mortgage broker categories at next year's ESTAS awards.

The ESTAS, the estate and letting agent award, recognise firms providing the best customer service in the UK residential property industry. The awards are based purely on ratings from homebuyers and sellers around the UK with over 30,000 customers taking part in this year's online customer service survey.

Mark Loffhouse, CEO of Mortgage Brain, comments, "We believe that everyone should be judged by their clients on the level of customer service they deliver and The ESTAS provides an ideal platform for brokers to show how good they are.

"We know our products are integral to the service brokers provide clients and we are very proud to continue to sponsor this category, which will undoubtedly help brokers retain and build their customer base."

Simon Brown, founder of The ESTAS Group, adds, "Our mission is to highlight great service provided by different firms involved in the residential property sector. Property transactions are extremely stressful for customers and it's the job of agents, brokers and conveyancers to help make the journey as smooth as possible.

"The Mortgage Broker categories will put the spotlight on broker firms who are really delivering the service they promise and provide them with marketing tools to promote their success."
