

Mortgage Brain strengthens its Corporate Account Management team

UK, May 18, 2015: Following the recent appointment of Chris Brown as one of its new National Account Managers, Mortgage Brain, the multi award winning mortgage technology solutions provider, has further strengthened its Corporate Account Management team with the appointment of Sharon Marshall.

Having worked as a National Account Manager at Santander for eight years, and most recently with Countrywide as Head of Insurance Sales and GI, Sharon brings a wealth of knowledge and experience and will be responsible for broadening Mortgage Brain's relationships with corporate accounts and networks, and delivering new sales.

Bob Jose, Sales Director at Mortgage Brain, comments, "I am delighted that Sharon has joined Mortgage Brain as our latest National Account Manager. She brings a great deal of experience, and with her skills and knowledge of the market, adds further strength to our Corporate Account Management team."

Sharon Marshall, adds, "I am really looking forward to working with the team at Mortgage Brain and the new challenges I've been set. Mortgage Brain is a clear market leader in its field and I'm delighted to be given the opportunity to play a role in the continued success of the business."
