Mortgage Brain opens new 'Mortgage Saucing' café

Leading fintech company, Mortgage Brain, has opened the doors on its latest business venture, a new café aptly named 'Mortgage Saucing'.

Open to staff and local residents and businesses, Mortgage Brain hopes the new café – open today and serving breakfast and lunch – will support and encourage better interaction between local businesses and those living in the area.

Located on the ground floor of its newly re-developed office in the heart of the business quarter in Croydon, 'Mortgage Saucing' offers complimentary parking and is in easy access from East Croydon Station.

As well as serving freshly brewed hot drinks, hand-made baguettes and home cooked meals with locally sourced ingredients, Mortgage Brain is offering everyone who uses the café a free mortgage source via its UKMortgages app with contact details and directions to local brokers provided free of charge.

Mark Lofthouse, CEO of Mortgage Brain, comments, "Having completed our office refurbishment and being resident in Croydon for a number of years, we felt it was time to say thank you and support the local community who have been our neighbours for so long."

"If you're a fan of a good cup of tea or coffee then you should pay Mortgage Saucing a visit. The home cooked food won't disappoint either; the café's special Friday Mortgage Saucing dish, in particular, should prove a hit."
