

PRESS RELEASE

Free Credit Reports via Noddle integration with The Key

UK, JANUARY 30, 2018: Brokers and mortgage advisers using The Key – Mortgage Brain's market leading point-of-sale, CRM and compliance system – can now offer their clients the ability to obtain and upload credit reports from leading credit reference agency, Noddle.

The latest version of The Key, which offers secure online data storage and supports the sale of mortgages, insurance, life and loans, now features an option for the Adviser to link to Noddle through the system's digital Client Portal.

By using the new feature, clients can now obtain free for life access to their credit report and score, download a PDF version and upload and share that with their Adviser through the Client Portal for ongoing case management.

Potentially saving an Adviser up to an hour per case and offering a modern and flexible process for information gathering, The Key's Client Portal – which can be accessed 24/7 on any device or platform and customised by the Adviser - features an online customer Fact Find and the ability for customers to securely send documents and messages to their Adviser at a time and place that suits them.

The latest enhancements to The Key also include an updated and re-designed Introducer Portal, which offers a more modern appearance and is now available on all devices.

Mark Lofthouse, CEO of Mortgage Brain, comments, "This latest integration with Noddle forms part of the many changes and enhancements being made to The Key to offer advisers and their customers the most streamlined and efficient digital advice journey.

"The Key continues to go from strength to strength; its success, widespread adoption and continuous growth in user numbers is fantastic and we're sure that the new features and functionalities in this latest version will add to its winning formula among new and existing customers."

Offering a modern, flexible and more customer-centric, digital advice journey, The Key offers a true end to end process, with one login and system, and is used by thousands of brokers and mortgage advisers to support their businesses.
